The 6th Brisbane Orientation Festival

The Brisbane Orientation Festival focuses on UQ, QUT and Griffith new students, bringing students, city living resources and local brands together in one place at the start of term. An expected 1,000 students attend, with indoor booths, gift giveaways, lucky draws and face-to-face Q&A. For brands, it's a concentrated window to build awareness, capture leads and grow a private community right as students arrive in the city—exposure, engagement and conversion in one event.

Why we run this Orientation Festival

Welcome new students

Help new students settle into campus and city life with useful info and gifts.

Grow brand reach

Give merchants a stage to showcase their brand and products to a young audience.

Spark connection

Bridge new students and merchants, building brand affinity through engagement and gifts.

Why new students want to come

Gifts, lucky draws and games keep students on site

Free gifts

Free giveaways on site that draw students in.

Interactive games

Fun activities that boost participation and on-site energy.

Useful info

Info on Brisbane living, study and campus resources to help new students settle in fast.

Sponsors get a full conversion funnel

Students come to you—no scrambling for foot traffic on the street

01

Pre-event exposure

Warm up UQ / QUT / Griffith communities and channels early, putting your brand on the new-student checklist.

02

On-site conversion

Students arrive, browse booths, grab gifts and scan to add WeChat—no street-side flagging down.

03

Private-community follow-up

Keep reaching out after the event via scan, task, prize and enquiry records.

Which merchants fit the Orientation Festival best

Rentals / Apartments / Moving

New to Brisbane, students need housing, furniture, broadband and insurance in their first 30 days.

Banking / Telco / Everyday services

Accounts, SIM cards, transport, health cover and daily spend—perfect for perks-for-leads on site.

Education / Careers / Migration

Students actively ask about courses, tutoring, internships, visas and career plans, with longer decision cycles.

Dining / Retail / Beauty

Great for voucher packs, lucky draws and community perks that turn one visit into repeat business.

Exposure

Online 100,000+ | On-site foot traffic 2,000+

Replace single-campus booths + street promo with one event

$2,500/day

Standard O-week campus booth
 Usually one uni only; leads depend on spot and passing traffic.

$35/hr

Extra street-promo labor
 Typically 4-10 staff; 4 hours on-site adds $560-$1,400.

1000+

New students all in one place
 UQ + QUT + Griffith students browse, scan and enquire in one indoor venue.

SCHOOL O-WEEK

The booth fee is just the start; scattered traffic and extra street promo cost more
 A typical merchant gets about 400 leads at campus O-week, but still needs 4-10 promoters to keep intercepting, so total cost easily exceeds the booth fee itself.

JR ORIENTATION FESTIVAL

Students browse every booth in one room while volunteers drive traffic to you
 Partnerships from $880, with students from three unis on-site; focus on gifts, QR codes, enquiries and private-community conversion, no big street-promo team needed.

Raffle tickets drive foot-traffic flow

SPONSOR VALUE

Turn students from "passing by" into "browse, scan, share, revisit"

Every interaction ties back to one reward: raffle tickets. To earn more, students team up, browse booths, scan codes and post on social; merchants get more even foot traffic and follow-up leads.

Students joined activities & Q&A

Student talk in session

"I got tons of free gifts and joined the lucky draw. The seniors patiently answered everything and gave me real confidence for uni life!"

— UQ student · Jarrica

"The event was well organised, the games were fun, and I even won a prize!"

— QUT student · Ivan

"I made lots of new friends and really loved the Q&A session."

— Griffith student · Lucy

"New to Brisbane and knowing no one, I picked up practical tips on housing, bank cards and course selection, and saved myself a lot of trouble."

— UQ student · Cindy

"An advisor helped me map out job hunting and visa planning after graduation, and I felt far more at ease."

— QUT student · Marcus

"I scanned to add a senior on WeChat and joined the new-student group, so there's always someone to help during O-week."

— Griffith student · Yuki

What Exhibitors Say

98%

Overall exhibitor satisfaction

"Three campuses in one venue meant more valid student WeChat contacts in half a day than a full day at a single-campus O-week."

—— Financial services exhibitor

"Steady foot traffic, and the lucky draw and demos kept passing students at our booth, giving concentrated brand exposure."

—— Telecom brand exhibitor

"Staff proactively helped with guiding and communication, so everything ran smoothly and we could focus on engaging students."

—— Local food & beverage exhibitor

"Scanning for WeChat built up a batch of precise student leads we can keep following up after the event — great value."

—— Education services exhibitor

What Volunteers Say

"Seeing students enjoy themselves and collect gifts made all the effort worth it. The cheers at every draw showed me the event was a success."

— Benny

"Helping new students with their questions and seeing them happy made me happy too. I made many new friends and felt the power of teamwork."

— Dora

"It was my first time running check-in. I learned how to calm nervous students and became more confident reaching out to people."

— Ariel

"Running the whole event with the team, our coordination kept improving, and by the end everyone felt a real sense of achievement."

— Kevin

"Answering students' questions, I realised I actually knew a lot, and that feeling of being needed was really special."

— Mia

"Warming up the crowd for the lucky draw and watching the energy lift instantly — in that moment it was all worth it."

— Tom

9 Years of a Student Brand Matrix

The Class Rep series was created by JR Academy in 2017. Focused on university students over 9 years of operation, it has built a matrix of 8 RED accounts + 6 WeChat Official Accounts plus active offline communities, becoming a brand widely recognised by international students in Australia.

A Content Ecosystem Across 4 Cities & 8 Campuses

Through RED, the Class Rep series has built a content ecosystem spanning 8 top campuses across 4 Australian cities, with Brisbane covering the UQ, QUT and Griffith new-student communities. The accounts post frequently year-round with highly engaged notes. Partnering with us, your brand can precisely reach an active, high-spending young audience, blending naturally into student life through note recommendations, topic engagement and offline tie-ins.

Uni life

Course selection · housing · social · campus guides, covering the full arrival journey

Education news

First-hand takes on courses · further study · job hunting · visa policy

Local events

Meetups · talks · offline perks that bring online traffic on-site

Arrival guides

New-student onboarding · pitfall guides, in high demand every intake

Matrix & reach

A 6-account matrix with 70k+ followers, covering 8 campuses across Melbourne / Sydney / Adelaide / Brisbane; in Brisbane the UQ · QUT Class Reps reach students at all three campuses.

Three content types

Education news (courses / further study / jobs / visas) · campus events (meetups / talks / perks) · arrival guides (onboarding / avoiding pitfalls), covering the whole uni-life cycle.

Partnership value

Top banner placement · in-depth integration in articles · brand exposure in thank-you lists · targeted community pushes, reaching loyal, highly active student users directly.

A Highly Loyal Student Community

For years the Class Rep WeChat accounts have focused on reaching students across Australia's four major cities (Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide, Brisbane) and top universities, offering in-depth education news, campus-life insights and local event info. The audience is highly loyal and highly active — an excellent way to deepen ties with students and build a brand community.

Why so loyal

Years of consistent must-have content on course selection / visas / jobs mean users subscribe by choice and stay long-term — not followers bought in bulk.

Signs of engagement

Steady article opens and interaction; the menu bar + community groups form daily touchpoints, so students return the moment they have a need.

What it means for brands

Not one-off exposure, but a place in students' chain of trust — ideal for building a brand community and long-term mindshare.

Private Communities You Can Reach Directly

1000+

Active RED student community members

Grouped by campus · highly active

20,000+

Sticky WeChat student community members

Targetable by city / campus

Day-to-day in the groups

Course reminders · event call-outs · perk giveaways · Q&A
— high-frequency touchpoints where students choose to stay.

Targeted reach

Precise pushes by city / campus deliver brand messages straight to target students, undiluted by public-feed algorithms.

Conversion levers

Scan to join → long-term reach → event call-outs → lead capture; a private community you can work again and again.

Your Bridge Into the Campus Market

Built on the Class Rep series' deep social-media resources and extensive offline-event experience, we offer a range of partnership opportunities that use our media influence and tight university network to build your brand a bridge into the campus market. Whether through digital content collaboration or hands-on events with close student interaction, our diverse partnership models help you effectively reach and engage a young, active target audience.

Content collaboration

RED note recommendations · WeChat article pushes · topic / collection campaigns that blend naturally into student life.

Offline events

Orientation Festival booths · campus talks · meetups · brand naming rights, engaging students face-to-face.

Direct community reach

Targeted private-community pushes · scan to add WeChat and capture leads, with ongoing follow-up after the event.

Campus network

A Class Rep KOC matrix · tie-ins with university clubs, using internal campus networks to boost brand presence.

Orientation Week Partnerships

Official O-Week Partnership

Every February and July we partner officially with universities during O-Week, with a booth for banners/posters, campus flyer distribution, coupon and gift giveaways, and QR sign-ups to add students / build new-student groups. Over 10,000 foot traffic per campus per day.

University Club Partnerships

O-Week is the prime time to build early brand affinity with students. Partnering with campus clubs lets us reach target student groups precisely through their signature activities and strengthen brand presence via internal campus networks.

Class Rep Brand Event Series

Brand Event Partnership

Gift/coupon giveaways · sponsor video showcase · interactive Q&A · speaking slot · WeChat add · downloads/sign-ups on a designated platform/app.

Customization

Themed events · venue setup · collateral & gift design · event naming sponsorship · on-site booth · banner · flyers.

200+

Events held over 9 years · 100+ average attendance per event

Leading Local Australian Enterprises

We actively partner deeply with local Australian enterprises such as AWS, Canva, and Atlassian, co-hosting career talks, Hackathons, and campus events, and leveraging industry resources to create more value for our partners.

Enterprise Partnership Formats

Naming sponsorship of company visits & learning events · naming sponsorship of career development talks · naming sponsorship of enterprise-hosted events. Grow together · elevate your brand image.
